

Kelly A. Long

Associate Dean for Undergraduate Studies
Colorado State University

Kelly Long is Associate Dean for Undergraduate Studies in the College of Liberal Arts at Colorado State University. She is responsible for undergraduate curriculum and course scheduling, and oversight of the International Studies and Liberal Arts Interdisciplinary majors and the College of Liberal Arts Academic Support Center directors. She represents the college on Committees including: Admissions Advisory; Campus orientation and recruiting; the Center for Educator Preparation, Inclusion and Diversity and International Programs; First Generation; Faculty Honors Council; teaching award and student scholarship selection. She plays an active role in Student Success Initiatives involving retention, persistence, graduation, and credit recovery courses. An Associate Professor in the History Department, Dr. Long came to CSU in 1998 following a 17 year career as a secondary educator. Her research interests include US-Asian relations, history education, and the Scholarship on Teaching and Learning. She earned her doctorate at the University of Colorado, and her masters and bachelors at Colorado State University.

PARTICIPANTS

Marie Chisholm-Burns

Assistant Vice President for Provost Budget and Planning, Office of the Provost and Chief Academic Officer
Xavier University

B.S., M.B.A. Northern Kentucky University

Carol Maegly joined Xavier University in September, 1997 serving in Financial Administration and the Provost Office, most recently assuming her duties of Assistant Vice President for Provost Budget and Planning on July 1, 2012. As Assistant Vice President for Provost Budget and Planning her areas of responsibility include provost operations, provost budgeting, assessment and institutional research. Prior to assuming the position of Assistant Vice President for Provost Budget and Planning Carol was the Budget Analyst from 1997-1999, Senior Budget Analyst from 2000-2003 and Budget Director from 2004-2009 in Financial Administration. She served as the Director of Provost Financial Operations from 2009-2012. Prior to joining Xavier University, she worked at Northern Kentucky University and Marshall's.
