* To provide flexibility during this change, new annual fee pricing will begin upon expiration of recommendations for organizations that had existing ACE recommendations as of December 31, 2022. For example, if your organization's recommendations from prior to December 31, 2022 will expire on July 31, 2025, you can expect the new annual fee to begin in 2026. If you have multiple expiration dates, new annual fee pricing will begin after the last course expiration date.
