

ACE/AIEA Institute for Leading Internationalization

Info Session

April 8, 2013

www.acenet.edu/ILI

Overview

- Goal: To prepare participants for the responsibilities of leading internationalization on their campuses.
- Jointly developed by ACE and the Association for International Education Administrators (AIEA), the leading national organization for senior international officers
- Open to designated campus leaders on internationalization, regardless of title.

The Basics

Program Dates: June 9 - 11, 2013

Location: Hilton Alexandria Old Town, Alexandria, VA

Early Application Deadline: April 15th

$1,100 for ACE/AIEA Members, $1,350 for non-members

Regular Application Deadline: May 15th

$1,200 for ACE/AIEA Members, $1,450 for non-members

Tentative Schedule

Sunday evening	Intro & the presidential perspective
Monday morning	Developing international goals and strategy
Monday afternoon	Creating a professional development plan
Monday afternoon	Matching international and institutional goals
Tuesday morning	Making the case for internationalization
Tuesday morning	Intl engagement and partnerships
Tuesday afternoon	Working with the CAO
Tuesday afternoon	Conclusion & building an ongoing learning network

Confirmed Faculty

David Maxwell, President, Drake University

Gilles Bousquet, Interim Chancellor, University of Wisconsin - Eau Claire

ACE/AIEA Development Team

Patti McGill Peterson, Presidential Advisor for Global Initiatives, ACE

Barbara Hill, Senior Associate for Internationalization, ACE

Brad Farnsworth, Assistant Vice President, ACE

Sabine Klahr, President, AIEA

Harvey Charles, Vice-President/President-Elect, AIEA

Donna Scarboro, Immediate Past President, AIEA

Darla Deardorff, Executive Director, AIEA

The “Take-Home” Project

- Customized for each participant
- Based on application, institutional profile, professional development plan, & supervisor input
- Due at the end of summer
- ACE/AIEA advice and feedback
- Sample projects

Brad Farnsworth, Assistant Vice President, CIGE, ACE

To ask a question:

Type your question into the Q&A panel on the right side of your screen.

Download the application: www.acenet.edu/ILI