

2017 Executive Forum for Leading Internationalization:

Bridging the Local and the Global

Monday, November 6, 2017

ACE Conference Center

Washington, D.C.

Speaker Information

Clarence Wyatt, President Monmouth College

Dr. Clarence Wyatt became the 14th president of Monmouth College on July 1, 2014. He came to Monmouth from Centre College, where he was Chief Planning Officer and Special Assistant to the President, and also the holder of the Pottinger Distinguished Professorship of History.

A 1978 graduate of Centre, Wyatt received his master's degree and Ph.D. in history from the University of Kentucky, in 1984 and 1990, respectively.

Wyatt has distinguished himself as a scholar of America's involvement in the Vietnam War. He is the author of Paper Soldiers: The American Press and the Vietnam War, an acclaimed book about U.S. press coverage of the war. He co-edited The Vietnam Era, a digital collection of essays and primary sources, and has contributed chapters and essays to several collections on the Vietnam War. Most recently, he co-edited Media and Propaganda in Wartime America, a two-volume encyclopedia. Wyatt has also spoken at conferences on a wide variety of topics related to American politics, diplomacy, journalism, and the Vietnam War. As a Fulbright Fellow, Wyatt taught Vietnamese and U.S. history at Hanoi University in 2012.